

The Word Today Encouragement

Romans 8:28

Pastor Doug Schroeder

This is Pastor Doug Schroeder with The Word Today and let's have some encouragement from Romans chapter 8, verse 28. "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him who have been called according to his purpose."

Whenever there are catastrophes and dangers that surround us we wonder how can this be for any good? It is all destruction; it is all scary. We see the potential for death and loss and we think, how can God use something like this? The comfort comes because the Lord God is using all things, even the things that are painful, even the things that are difficult, including death. He can take all of these circumstances and conditions and turn them for our benefit.

Notice that this is a promise to those that are in Jesus Christ. That is why it is important that you come to the Lord Jesus and put your hope and trust in him because there are many things that are not beneficial, but the Lord God through Jesus can take even those bad, ugly, painful things and use them and turn them for our benefit and our salvation.

I hope that you will receive that comfort and blessings and please be encouraged knowing that in the Lord Jesus all of your days, all of your situations are being lined up and organized by the Lord God so that he will move you steadfastly toward your salvation and eternal life. God will work for all things for the good of those who love him and are called according to his purpose in Christ Jesus.
